Introduction

The Listing Rules (LR) are made by the Maldives Stock Exchange (MSE) in accordance with the powers vested in it by section 24 of the Maldives Securities Act 2/2006 (MSA 2006).

These rules govern the admission of securities to the Official List, quotation of securities and disclosure. A listed company must agree to abide by the Listing Rules to gain admission to the Official List and to remain listed. These rules create obligations, which are additional and complementary to statute.

The MSE under its discretion may accept or reject any listing application in the administration of these rules, subject to Capital Market Development Authority's (CMDA) approval.

Reference to any statute and statutory provision shall be construed as those in force from time to time.

Chapter headings, section headings and the titles and numbers of rules are for guidance and ease of reference only.

These rules shall be construed in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the Republic of Maldives. The MSE shall not be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge of these rules provided that the act or omission was done in good faith.

A listed company is expected to comply with the spirit and the letter of the Listing Rules.

CHAPTER 1

CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION

1.1 Discretion and refusal of applications

- 1.1.1 An application for listing will be considered on its own merit. Under the MSA 2006, the MSE may also refuse an application for admission if it considers:
- admission of the securities would be detrimental to investors' interests; or
  - for securities already listed in another stock exchange, the issuer has failed to comply with any obligations under that listing.
- 1.1.2 MSE may, where it deems appropriate to do so, may require amendments to the documents accompanying the application, for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the Listing Rules, and for protection of investors.

1.2 Methods of Listing

- 1.2.1 A company may obtain a listing for a security by one, or a combination of more than one, of the methods described below:
- Offer for Subscription: An offer for subscription is an offer to the public by a company of its own securities;
  - Offer for Sale: An offer for sale is an offer to the public of securities by one or more of the existing holders of securities; or
  - Introduction: An introduction is where the MSE would grant a security issued by a company a listing without the requirement of a public offering of its securities. The listing by way of introduction shall be considered by the MSE only in very exceptional circumstances.

1.3 Equity

- 1.3.1 An application for a listing of equity on the First Board may be considered if the company meets the following criteria:
- it has an issued and paid up capital of a minimum of MVR5, 000,000;
  - the shareholders' funds are the same or greater than its equity; and
  - the subscription open for public should not be less than any of the following:-
    - A minimum of 10% of issued and paid up share capital including the proposed offer
    - A minimum of 250,000 shares or shares with total face value of MVR 500,000

5.2 Rights Issues

- 5.2.1 A company intending to make a rights issue shall immediately notify the MSE and submit the application within seven (7) market days from the date of notification. Following submission of the application, the matters relating to the issue shall be conducted in accordance with the guidance given by the MSE.
- 5.2.2 No dates shall be fixed for closing of books, entitlement, provisional allotment, splitting and renunciation until the application for such an issue is approved by the MSE.
- 5.2.3 Provisional allotment in the case of a rights issue shall be at least ten (10) market days after receiving approval from the MSE but not later than twenty (20) market days.
- 5.2.4 The securities shall be allotted within fourteen (14) market days of the closure of the issue, on the basis of allotment determined in prospectus.
- 5.2.5 MSD will process the allotment lists sent from the company and generate a deposit request within fourteen (14) market days.

- 5.2.6 Within five (5) market days from receiving the deposit requests from MSD, the company shall approve the deposits and send the approved deposit list to MSD.
- 5.2.7 MSD shall upload the approved deposit list received from the listed company to the individual investors' MSD accounts and send the confirmation of deposit to the company within five (5) market days.
- 5.2.8 Upon receiving confirmation from MSD, the company shall inform the shareholders of the lodgement of shares into MSD accounts within five (5) market days by way of a public announcement. The company shall also notify the shareholders in writing the allotted number of shares and MSD account number of the shareholder.
- 5.2.9 The company shall submit the affidavit of compliance (Appendix 4) to the MSE.
- 5.2.10 A rights issue once announced cannot be cancelled or varied except with the prior permission of the MSE. Such permission will not be granted by the MSE except in instances where no trading has taken place in the securities concerned between the date of announcement of the rights issue and the date on which the request for cancellation or variation is made or in other exceptional circumstances.

5.3 Contents of Offering Circular for a Rights Issue

- 5.3.1 The offering circular for a rights issue shall include:
- a. the date of the circular;
  - b. the reasons and purpose of the issue: this shall include:
    - i. a statement or an estimate of the net proceeds of the issue; and
    - ii. a statement as to how the proceeds are intended to be applied.
  - c. the last traded price of a share; and

  - c. the company shall allot the securities within five (5) market days from the date of approval by the MSE.
- 5.4.2 The company shall send the allotment list to MSD and shall publicly announce that the allotment for applications has been made within five (5) market days from the date of the closure of the issue.
- 5.4.3 MSD will process the allotment lists sent from the company and generate a deposit request within five (5) market days.
- 5.4.4 Within five (5) market days from receiving the deposit requests from MSD, the company shall approve the deposits and send the approved deposit list to MSD.

- 5.4.5 MSD shall upload the approved deposit list received from the company to the individual investors MSD accounts and send the confirmation of deposit to the company within five (5) market days.
- 5.4.6 Upon receiving confirmation from MSD, the company shall have to inform the shareholders of the lodgement of shares into MSD accounts within five (5) market days by way of a public announcement. The company shall also notify the shareholders in writing the allotted number of shares and MSD account number of the shareholder.
- 5.4.7 The company shall submit the affidavit of compliance outlined in Appendix 4 to the MSE.

5.5 Letter of Allotment, Form of Acceptance and Registration Form of Renunciation

- 5.5.1 If renunciation facilities are given, letters of allotment shall contain provision for splitting. Split letters shall be certified by an official of the company or the registrars to the issue.
- 5.5.2 Where a right of renunciation is given the period for renunciation shall be twenty one (21) days from the date of issue of the letters of allotment or provisional letters of allotment while the period for splitting shall not exceed fourteen (14) days provided that such time periods may be extended in exceptional circumstances, to a maximum of six (6) weeks and three (3) weeks respectively.

5.6 Further Issues

- 5.6.1 A further issue of securities with a right of conversion to equity, to persons other than existing holders shall require the approval of the MSE.
- 5.6.2 A further issue of securities shall be sanctioned by a special resolution passed at a general meeting of the members of the company.

CHAPTER 6

CORPORATE DISCLOSURE

6.1 Standard of Disclosure

- 6.1.1 A listed company has an obligation to fully disclose to the public, the information necessary to make informed investment decisions. The listed company should secure the immediate release of information, which might be reasonably expected to have a material effect on the market activity and price of its quoted securities. This would ensure the maintenance of a fair and orderly securities market and help to ensure that all investors have simultaneous and equal access to the same information.

6.2 Immediate Disclosure of Material Information

- 6.2.1 Immediate disclosure should be made of information about the affairs of a listed company or about events or conditions in the market for the securities of the listed company in either of the following circumstances:
- a. where the information is likely to have a significant effect on the price of any of the quoted securities of the listed company; or
  - b. where such information is likely to be considered important, by a reasonable investor in determining choice of investment.

- 6.2.2 Material information is any information of a factual nature that has a bearing on the value of the securities of the listed company or on investor decisions as to whether or not to invest or trade in such securities. Material information includes, but is not limited to the following:
- a. information known to the company concerning the company's property;
  - b. business financial conditions and prospects;
  - c. mergers and acquisitions;
  - d. dealings with employees, suppliers, customers and others; and
  - e. information concerning a significant change in ownership of the company's securities owned by insiders or representing control of the company.
- 6.2.3 The following events require prompt announcement of disclosure:
- a. a proposed joint venture, merger, acquisition or take-over;
  - b. a decision either to declare or not declare a dividend;
  - c. any decision to change the capital structure of the company. This includes a rights issue or a bonus issue;
  - d. change in the Directors, Company Secretary, Registrars or Auditors of the company;
  - e. a change in control;
  - f. change of address of the registered office of the company or of any office at which the register of the securities of the company is kept;
  - g. resignation, suspension or removal of the Chief Executive Officer or Managing Director or person who is performing these roles; and
  - h. occurrence of any event that would result in the winding up of the company or any of its subsidiaries or the appointment of a receiver or liquidator for the company or any of its subsidiaries.
- 6.2.4 The following list includes matters that would require a prompt announcement of disclosure if considered to be material in the opinion of the Board of Directors:
- a. the acquisition or loss of a contract;
  - b. a new product or discovery;
  - c. the borrowing of funds;
  - d. the public or private sale of additional securities;
  - e. the purchase or sale of an asset;
  - f. a change in capital investment plans;
  - g. any changes in the corporate purpose and any alterations in the company's activities or the initiation of new ones;
  - h. any investment that will have a significant impact on the company;

- i. judicial or quasi judicial actions of any nature initiated by or against the company;
  - j. any licensing or franchising agreement or its cancellation which may affect the issuer's operations;
  - k. any occurrence of an event of default under the terms and conditions of any issue of debentures, promissory notes, bonds or any other security issued by the company;
  - l. any penalties imposed by state authorities;
  - m. any acquisition of voting rights which results in the company becoming the holding company; and
  - n. any other information which in the opinion of the Board of Directors is material.
- 6.2.5 Announcements mentioned in Chapter 6 shall be communicated to the MSE in writing signed by an authorised officer of such company.
- 6.2.6 The following circumstances where disclosures can be withheld and constitute an infrequent exception to the normal requirement of immediate public disclosure:
- a. when immediate disclosure would prejudice the ability of the company to pursue its corporate objectives;
  - b. when the facts are in a state of flux and a more appropriate moment for disclosure is imminent; and
  - c. when the listed company is holding negotiations and has not reached an agreement.
- 6.2.7 Whenever the material information is being temporarily withheld, strict confidentiality must be maintained. If rumours concerning such information develop, immediate public disclosure is required.
- 6.2.8 In cases of doubt, the presumption must always be in favour of disclosure.

6.3 Thorough Public Dissemination

- 6.3.1 Public disclosure of material information should be notified to the MSE. To facilitate the dissemination of this information, an announcement shall be made through the media including at least one TV channel, one radio channel and one newspaper by the company. This information shall be displayed on the company's website.
- 6.3.2 Under no circumstances should disclosure of material corporate developments be made on an individual or selective basis to analysts, shareholders or other persons unless such information has previously been disclosed and disseminated to the public.

6.4 Clarification or Confirmation of Rumours and Reports and Response to Unusual Trading Activity

- 6.4.1 Where unusual price movement or trading activity, or both occurs without any apparent publicly available information the listed company shall respond promptly to any inquiries made by the MSE and CMDA.
- 6.4.2 A listed company should respond promptly to any inquiries made by the MSE and CMDA concerning rumours or reports regarding the company.

6.5 Trading by Connected Persons

- 6.5.1 Connected persons should not trade on the basis of material information that is unknown to the investing public. Moreover, connected persons should refrain from trading even if the information has been released to the MSE for a period of at least two (2) market days, to permit thorough public dissemination and evaluation of the information. In computing this period of two (2) market days, the day on which disclosure is made will be excluded.
- 6.5.2 For the purposes of this rule, an individual is connected with a company if, and only if:
- the individual is a director of that company or a related company; or
  - the individual occupies a position as an officer (other than director) or employee of that company or a related company or a position involving a professional or business relationship between the individual (or the employer or a company of which the individual is a director) and that company or a related company such that the individual may reasonably be expected to have access to information which is price sensitive.

CHAPTER 7 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

7.1 Compliance

- 7.1.1 A listed company in First Board and Second board is required to comply with a code of corporate governance approved by the CMDA. Additionally, it is strongly recommended for companies on the Start Up Board to strive to comply with this code as well.

CHAPTER 8 LISTING FEES

8.1 Listing Fee

- 8.1.1 The Issuer shall pay the listing fees as prescribed in Appendix 5 of the Listing Rules.
- 8.1.2 The Issuer shall pay fees and fines accordingly with the Fee and Fine Schedule of the MSE. The MSE may introduce fees and fines from time to time subject to CMDA's approval.

CHAPTER 9 ENFORCEMENT

9.1 Violation or Non Compliance of the Listing Rules

- 9.1.1 In the event of any violation or non-compliance with any of the Listing Rules by any listed company, the MSE, may take any or all of the following actions:
- publicly reprimand such company
  - impose a fine as prescribed in the fees and fine schedule of the MSE
  - suspend trading of securities of such company for a period of time till the non-compliance or violation persists;
  - delist the securities of such company from the official list; or
  - impose any other condition on the listed company as deemed fit.

9.2 Fines for failure to comply with the Listing Rules

- 9.2.1 Where the MSE imposes a fine for violation of these rules, or where such fine imposed by these rules, the company shall pay such fines as prescribed in the Fee and Fine Schedule of the MSE.

9.3 Trading halts and suspensions

- 9.3.1 The MSE may at its discretion impose a trading halt on the securities of a listed company in the following instances:

- a. prior to an announcement of any price sensitive information;
- b. pending obtaining a clarification from the company on a rumour or report;
- c. when an unusual movement in price or volume of a security is noted;
- d. if the MSE deems it necessary for the purpose of disseminating information; and
- e. the duration of a trading halt will be determined by the MSE and may be extended beyond one (1) market day.

- 9.3.2 The MSE may at any time suspend the trading of securities of a listed company in any of the following circumstances:

- a. the company is unable or unwilling to comply with or violates a listing rule; or
- b. the Listing Rules require such suspension

CHAPTER 10

TRANSFER TO ANOTHER BOARD

10.1 Transfer of a Company Listed on the Second Board to the First Board

- 10.1.1 A company listed on the Second Board shall be transferred to the First Board provided the following conditions are satisfied:
- a. the company has been listed on the Second Board for a period of not less than one year and the company has continued its business in accordance with the prospectus issued to the public; and
  - b. the criteria set for the First Board admission under rule 1.3.1.
- 10.1.2 A company listed on the Second Board which satisfies the requirements set forth in rule 10.1.1 (a) may make an application to the MSE to be listed on the First Board.
- 10.1.3 The MSE has the discretion to accept or reject any application made under Chapter 10 of the Listing Rules in the administration of the Listing Rules.

10.2 Transfer of a Company Listed on the Start Up Board to the Second or First Board

- 10.2.1 A company listed on the Start Up Board shall be transferred to the Second Board or First Board provided the following conditions are satisfied:
- a. the company has been listed on the Start Up Board for a period of not less than one year and the company has continued its business in accordance with the prospectus issued to the public; and
  - b. the criteria set for the Second Board admission under 1.3.2 or First Board admission under rule 1.3.1.
- 10.2.2 A company listed on the Start Up Board which satisfies the requirements set forth in rule 10.2.1 (a) may make an application to the MSE to be listed on the Second Board or First Board.
- 10.2.3 The MSE has the discretion to accept or reject any application made under Chapter 10 of the Listing Rules in the administration of the Listing Rules.
