The Maldives Transport and Contracting Company (MTCC) CEO Hassan Shah and Heads of Departments have met with the visiting members of the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce's Trade and Investment Promotion Mission to the Maldives.

At the meeting held at the MTCC Tower this morning, the CEO and Heads of Departments spoke on the opportunities for enhancing business with MTCC, and generally in the Maldives. They briefed the visitors on the current projects undertaken by the company, and issues that the company seeks to resolve for timely project execution and completion. They highlighted that the meeting is a good opportunity for MTCC and the Ceylon trade and investment communities to connect.

The visiting members of the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce's Trade and Investment Promotion Mission to the Maldives spoke on the various Ceylon companies' products, services and exchanged views for further development of business, trade and investment relations between Sri Lanka and MTCC.
